

Transparency and security for your support

Good to know: These useful tips and information explains how your help arrives and how you can shape your contribution.

Funding opportunities and tax information

- Donations (please indicate "donation" in the purpose of use) are possible in any amount and will be used directly for the purpose of realizing the Foundation's aim.
- Financial contributions (please specify "contribution" in the purpose of use) are possible from 1.000 €. 50% of these increase the permanently preserved foundation assets, 50% will be used directly for current purposes of the foundation.
- Amounts without information in the intended use will be used as a donation, up to a maximum of 999,99 €. From an amount of € 1,000.00, the amount will be seen as a financial contribution.
- Your donation or contribution is tax deductible. Amounts up to 300,00 € can simply be used by a deposit receipt or bank statement to make a tax claim. Please note the tax number of the Foundation "HAUS DER STIFTER - Stiftergemeinschaft of Stadtparkasse Augsburg" on your receipt or bank statement. It is 218/1001/85101.
From a donation or contribution of € 300.01 you will receive a grant certificate. For this purpose, please enter your full address.
- Contract for the benefit of third parties or subscription entitlement. If you want to support the foundation outside a testamentary disposition with a contribution in case of death, you can do so via a so-called "contract for the benefit of third parties" for a specific account or custody account as well as via the right to subscribe to a life or pension insurance contract without to have to change the will or the inheritance contract. The contribution to the foundation is completely exempt from inheritance tax. Please contact our foundation consultant Susanne Stippler.
- Contribution by inheritance. The contribution of the assets within 24 months after the death, can lead to retroactive expiration of the accrued Inheritance tax under certain conditions.
- Testamentary contribution / name foundation. With your testamentary contribution or your own name foundation, you can engage permanently. The grant is entirely tax-exempted from the Inheritance tax. A legal advisor is recommended.

Tip: Donate AND found at the same time! With your contribution of 1,000 euros or more to the Fuggerei Förderstiftung you are donator and founder at the same time.
